Perfectly Me Superhero Camp is a fun, exciting place where every kid can be a hero, learning powerful Supervalues while making new friends, too. This year, it will also be a place where the Perfectly Me Squad faces a shocking new menace they've never encountered before.

Good morning, Ms. Robbins! Good morning, Ms. Gilmer! How are you two doing today?

l'm doing terrific, Maya! We have lots of new campers this year, so that's exciting. Today has been a huge success so we're ending the day on a strong note.

l agree with Ms. Gilmer. It has been fun meeting the new campers and today we really got things off to a great start. Looks like Lester is deep in thought today. l'm sensing some superpower readings that are off the charts. I wonder who's giving off that kind of energy...

really go great st Lest thou

Many of the campers at Perfectly Me Superhero Camp do not realize it, but their fellow camper Mikey is actually the astounding Captain Kid Kindness.

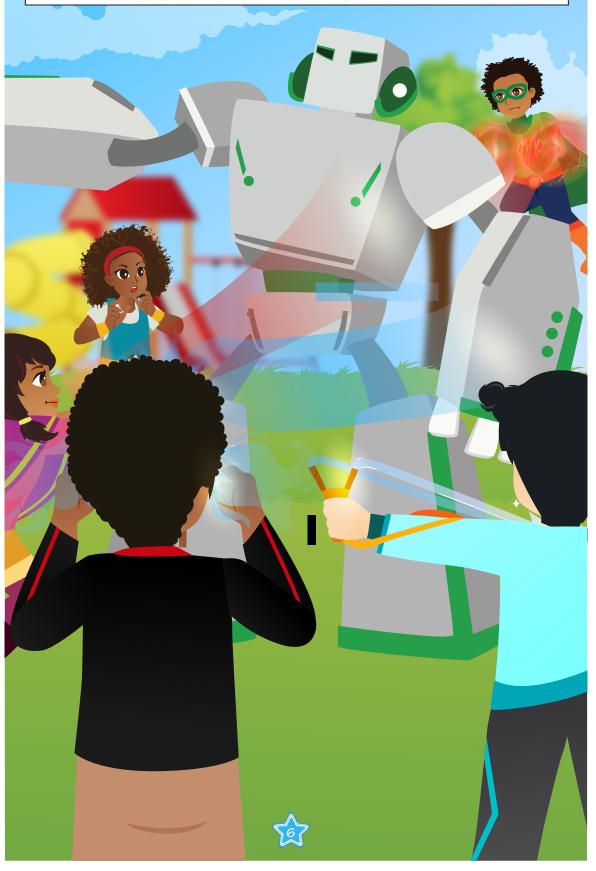

And Maya and her friends are the powerful heroes known as the Perfectly Me Squad!

There are some other amazing heroes on-site at Perfectly Me Superhero Camp this year—and some of them are helping out as CITs - counselors in training!

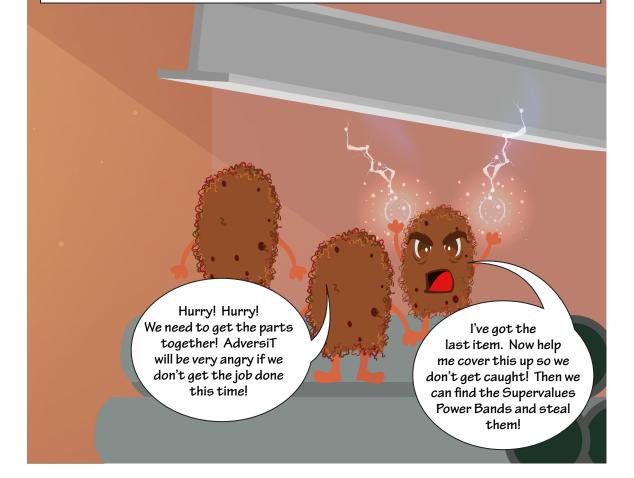

Several months ago, the Perfectly Me Squad battled one of archvillain AdversiT's greatest creations—the giant robot known as NegativaT! With help from Captain Kid Kindness, the Squad was able to save the day.

As the campers and counselors clean up from the busy day's events, archvillain AdversiT has a diabolical scheme underway! She has several of her minions at the camp working on a secret plan to steal the Supervalues Power Bands, which represent each hero's powers. Campers earn their bands by demonstrating their powers — and the Power Bands offer a great reminder of their mighty Supervalues.

The devious minions found a sheet to cover the metal parts they've gathered as part of AdversiT's wicked plan.

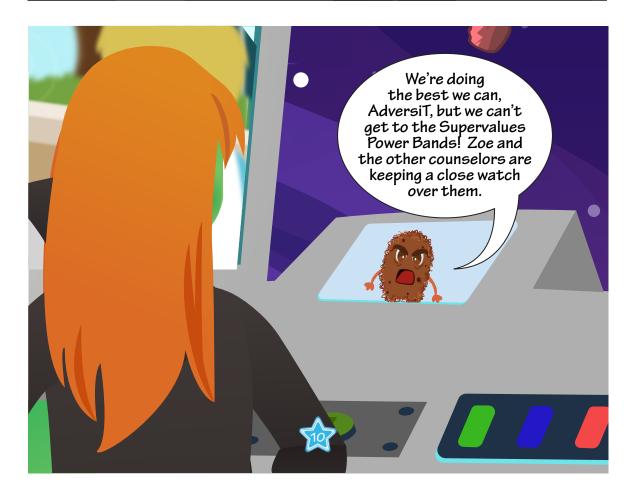

As the campers start to leave for the evening with their parents, Squad Leader Maya takes a moment to think about what camp means for everyone

Meanwhile, from her headquarters in space, AdversiT has been observing camp! She has watched the campers building their Supervalues and skills and she is not happy about their progress.

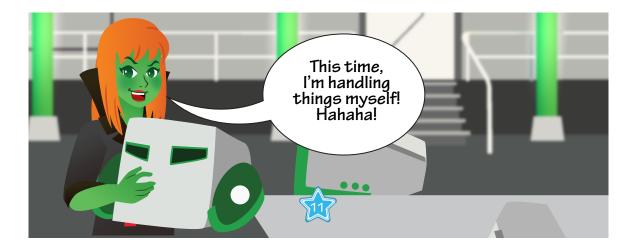

Unbelievable! The Squad has been growing in power and now being re training a group of new recruits to build their own super powers and values! We can't allow this to go on!

"The Awesome Perfectly Me Girls are helping train the newer heroes! Zoe the Courageous, Nikki the Visionary and Diti the Connector are there as we speak!", AdversiT told the minions.

Suddenly, without warning, AdversiT transports herself into the heart of Superhero Camp!

Stunned by the sudden arrival of AdversiT, the heroes listen to her silently.

Using her bizarre magic powers, AdversiT creates a fearsome new construct using the metal parts gathered by her minions who have been stationed on Earth, together with the robotic head from NegativaT!

> Behold, the coming of the mighty Robo Beast!!! And I see you and your friends there, Zoe. I'm coming for you, but I'll handle the Squad and Captain Kid Kindness first!

Instinctively, the younger campers transform into their alternate identities and the Perfectly Me heroes spring into action!

Zoe and the other Awesome Perfectly Me Girls were the first group of superheroes who battled AdversiT.

Zoe, should we change and help them out? These kids look like they could use some backup!

Not just yet. Let's see what they can do. We can jump in later if need be. As Joseph the Wolf Boy and Captain Kid Kindness enter into battle with the malevolent Robo Beast, Maya sees two minions moving toward the secret location of the Power Bands!

Seems like the mighty Robo Beast was also a giant metal distraction!

> l get it! AdversiT wanted to ruin camp by stealing the Power Bands. She doesn't want even more kids building powers and Supervalues of their own!

Our heroes, weary from the ferocious battle, reach deep within themselves to launch a final all-out attack on the powerful Robo-Beast!

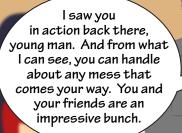

Thanks, Mister! That's a very kind thing to say! And to me, that means you're a hero yourself! By defeating AdversiT and the Robo Beast and helping their fellow campers to learn and grow, these young legends have proven once again that every kid truly is a superhero. And who knows what astounding adventures lie ahead for our Perfectly Me Superheroes! But, we know no matter what, they will be ready to battle AdversiT!
